WE GATHER
NOVEMBER 10, 2019
REMEMBRANCE DAY SERVICE

Introduction

Territorial Acknowledgement:

“We gather today on the traditional territory of the Anishinaabeg people and, specifically, the Nipissing First Nation, the land they share with us as a result of the Robinson-Huron Treaty. May we live in peace and friendship as a treaty people.”

Greeting:

Leader: The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Congregation: And also with you.

The Welcome: (Please remain standing until the flags are presented)

The Act of Remembrance:

Leader: They shall not grow old as we that are left grow old,

Congregation: Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

Leader: At the going down of the sun, and in the morning,

All: We will remember them.

The Presentation of the Colours

WE ENTER INTO GOD’S PRESENCE

Call to Worship:

Leader: Today we gather to remember, and express our deepest thanks to God and particularly those incredibly brave, ordinary souls who stepped forward and gave of their freedom, that we might be free...

Congregation: We gather to hear and remember the stories of the deeds done, and the lives lived by ordinary heroes, that our lives might be different and free.

All: Today is a day of remembrance. May we never forget!

Opening Prayer:

God of peace, we gather today to remember the loss of so many children through the horrors of war.

This sacred task of remembrance calls us to ensure that the scourge of war must end.

Because, through remembrance, we understand what is truly lost when nations resort to war.

Your creation, which should bring joy to the world, seems lost and in chaos because too often we are unable to live at peace with ourselves and others. So let this day of remembrance be an inspiration to us because we seemed to have forgotten. Amen.

Prayer of Confession: Please see the screen.

Words of Assurance:

Choral Assurance of Forgiveness:

How deep the peace, the confidence,
of those whose wrongs are forgiven.

How deep the peace, the confidence,
of those whose hearts are healed. (x2)
