Welcome

Announcements

Lighting of the Christ Candle

Territorial Acknowledgement:

‘We gather today on the traditional territory of the Anishinaabeg people and, specifically, the Nipissing First Nation, the land they share with us as a result of the Robinson-Huron Treaty. May we live in peace and friendship as a treaty people.’

Greeting:

Leader: The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Congregation: And also with you.

WE ENTER INTO GOD’S PRESENCE

Call to Worship:

This is a day of remembrance.

Remembrance and more.

This is a day of tears.

Tears and more.

This is a day for our country.

Our country and more.

This is a day for our Armed Forces.

Our Armed Forces and more.

This is a day to remember and cry,
for our country and all countries,
for our people and all people,
for our soldiers and all soldiers.

This is a day for us

to recommit ourselves to justice,

to recommit ourselves to peace.

This is a day, as is every day --

that we must never forget.

In our remembering and in our living...

let us worship God.

Richard Bott, Dunbar Ryerson P.C., Vancouver, B.C.

Hymn: "Great Is Thy Faithfulness" VU#288

Opening Prayer

O God of many names,
we pray for peace
within ourselves,
in our relationships,
in our communities,
in our world.

May we be empowered to do the work of peace
wherever we may find ourselves
so that you may work through us.

Where there is terror or fear,
may we help create calmness.

Where there is the silence of repression.
may we help to give voice.

Where there is only violence,
may we help to show other ways.

For we know that peace is generosity.
peace is compassion,

peace is justice,
and peace is extended to all.

O God, hear our prayer
and help us be the answer.

Amen.

ECCLESIASTES 3.1-8

For everything there is a season, and a time for every
matter under heaven:

a time to be born, and a time to die;

a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;

a time to kill, and a time to heal;

a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather
stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from
embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
a time to tear, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

Silence

Remembrance Day “In Flanders's Fields”

Hymn: “Make Me a Channel of your peace” VU#684

Offering Prayer:

Loving and gracious God,
accept these gifts that we offer.
May they contribute toward a world
that is more forgiving, more loving,
more just, and more peaceful.
We pray in Jesus' name.

Amen

Commissioning:

Go from here
ready to take risks for the gospel.
We go seeking grater courage.
Go from here
ready to give yourself for the gospel.
We go seeking greater commitment.
Go from here
certain that God is with you.
We go knowing that we are never alone.

Beth W. Johnston, Hantsport P.. C., Hantsport, N. S.

Choral Benediction:

Go now in peace, never be afraid
God will go with you each hour of every day.
Go now in faith, steadfast, strong and true.
Know God will guide you in all you do.
Go now in love, and show you believe.
Reach out to others so all the world can see.
God will be there watching from above.
Go now in peace, in faith and in love.

*We hope that you have been enriched through the worship today
and that you will come again!*
